

NDLR Gender Balance

The New Directions in Leukaemia Research Meeting is committed to improving gender balance among its Organising and Scientific Committees and invited speakers to reflect the gender balance across our research community. Since 2014 our “Women in Science” Forum has discussed issues in gender equity and strategies to improve female participation at all levels.

2020 Statistics

2020	FEMALE	MALE
Organising and Scientific Committees	40%	60%

Previous Statistics

2018	FEMALE	MALE
Organising and Scientific Committees	40%	60%
Invited Speakers	46%	54%
Abstracts - Submitted	60%	40%
Abstract - Selected for oral presentation	40%	60%
Delegates	53%	47%

2016	FEMALE	MALE
Organising and Scientific Committees	25%	75%
Invited Speakers	45%	55%
Abstracts - Submitted	47%	53%
Abstract - Selected for oral presentation	30%	70%
Delegates	47%	53%

2014	FEMALE	MALE
Organising and Scientific Committees	27%	73%
Invited Speakers	21%	79%

2012	FEMALE	MALE
Organising and Scientific Committees	29%	71%
Invited Speakers	17%	83%

2010	FEMALE	MALE
Organising and Scientific Committees	27%	73%
Invited Speakers	11%	89%